

Overview

The SOMAX Customization training class provides hands on, in depth training in the use and implementation of the tools used to customize SOMAX and the SOMAX Software Development Kit (SDK). The class shows Information Technology (IT) professionals how to customize the SOMAX Professional system.

Audience

The SOMAX Customization training class is designed for IT professionals with in depth knowledge of SOMAX as well as familiarity with standard programming techniques.

Pre-requisites

SOMAX Professional System Manager Training

Class Content

- SOMAX System Manager – In Depth
 - Data dependant edit tables
 - Lookup filtering and scoping
 - External data table lookup
 - System Defaults
 - Module Access Control
- Visual Object Primer
 - Introduction to Object Oriented Programming
 - Class Hierarchy and Inheritance
 - The concepts of SELF and SUPER
 - Methods and functions
 - Extending and / or over-riding standard methods
- SOMAX Software Development Kit (SDK)
 - What is the SDK
 - SOMAX Classes
 - Using the SDK to change / enhance standard SOMAX behavior
 - Adding new modules to the SOMAX system
 - We will add a new module to the system during the class

Class Duration

The class lasts five (5) days and is conducted Monday thru Friday.

Class Scheduling

The SOMAX Customization training class is provided on an on-demand basis. Please contact the SOMAX training coordinator if you are interested in attending.